

= LIVING =
ARCHAEOLOGY
WEEKEND

OUR TEAM

THE LAW
STEERING COMMITTEE

Since 2007, three groups have worked collaboratively to plan and deliver Living Archaeology Weekend: the United States Forest Service-Daniel Boone National Forest (USFS-DBNF), the Kentucky Organization of Professional Archaeologists (KyOPA), and the Kentucky Archaeological Survey (KAS). Representatives of these groups, as well as the Kentucky Heritage Council, comprise the LAW Steering Committee, which works year-round and meets monthly to plan the event and to create supporting educational materials.

US Forest Service – Daniel Boone National Forest

Matt Davidson is the District Archaeologist for the Cumberland District.

Megan Krietsch is the Heritage Program Manager and Tribal Relations Program Manager for the Forest.

Ann Wilkinson is the Red River Gorge Archaeology Technician for the Cumberland District.

Kentucky Organization of Professional Archaeologists

Darlene Applegate is Chair of the Department of Folk Studies and Anthropology at Western Kentucky University.

Christina Pappas is Archaeologist/State Cultural Resource Specialist for the Kentucky office of the Natural Resources Conservation Service.

Christy Pritchard is Operations Manager/ Cultural Heritage Program Manager for Environmental Research Group.

Kentucky Archaeological Survey

Gwynn Henderson is the Education Director for the Survey.

Kentucky Heritage Council

Tressa Brown is Historic Preservation Coordinator at KHC.

Karen Stevens is Historic Preservation Database Coordinator at KHC.

info@livingarchaeologyweekend.org

LIVINGARCHAEOLOGYWEEKEND.ORG

Facebook.com/LivingArchaeologyWeekend

